CLOSING SESSION: Implications of Real Estate Agent Commission Changes

Location: Salon I

A recent court decision and related litigation concerning real estate agent compensation could take years to resolve. But in the meantime, the market can be expected to develop and test new approaches to the negotiation and payment of buyer agent commissions, which may, in turn, have significant implications on current business models. Join us for an open discussion of where things stand and what this could mean for lenders.

Speakers

Pete Mills, Senior Vice President, Residential Policy and Strategic Industry Engagement, Mortgage Bankers Association

Jackie Mohr, Vice President, Assistant General Counsel, Business Lines, Zillow Home Loans
